Choose one of the sections below and read example phrases from it with the word in bold missing (e.g. "BEEP commonly quoted definition of this is by...") until your partner guesses the missing word. They can only guess once for each example sentence. When they finish, read out the ones that they got wrong, then change roles and do the same again. You can use the same section more than once if you haven't used all of the examples. If you run out of examples before they correctly guess the missing word, try to make up your own examples with the same missing word.
